November 7, 2007

To all of my patients, colleagues and friends,

I am happy to announce I have relocated to two new locations!

I will be caring predominantly for my pediatric patients with special needs at;

California Integrative Hyperbaric Center

16251 Laguna Canyon Road. Suite 175

Irvine CA 92618

T 949-428-8878

My general medical practice including family medicine, pediatrics, and gynecological care is located at;

Serenity Wellness Center

1831 Orange Ave. Suite B

Costa Mesa CA 92627

T 949 642 3424

F 949-548-8233

Please feel free to choose which ever location is convenient and will best suit your personal needs.

As many of you know, my departure from my previous practice at the institute for progressive medicine was sudden and unfortunately did not give me the opportunity to give my patients the notice they deserved and needed for on-going care. Due to contractual obligations I was not allowed to maintain a patient list and therefore have been unable to contact my patients directly. I appreciate everything you have done to spread the word regarding my new contact information. In addition, I do not have access to your medical files from my old office. You will need to fill out a "release of records" and submit this to the institute for progressive medicine to obtain a copy.

You can continue to contact me on my roving office line; 949-743-5770, by email; drbarrett@inaturalmedicine.com or by calling the offices directly. I will continue to post updates, will be creating a monthly newsletter, uploading audio files of lectures and will post patient forms and handouts on my website; www.inaturalmedicine.com so please check back periodically.

Please email or call with any questions!

I feel so very fortunate; the offers of support and assistance during this transition far exceeded what I could have possibly accepted. Thank you very much!!!

*In good health,
Koren Barrett ND*
